The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

WIFE-BEATER PUNISHED.

John Morton, wifebeater, stood before the recorder in the police court at Bayonne, N. J., yesterday, and his wife with both eyes blackened and her face all puffed up from the blows, was there as his accuser. The recorder looked at the woman and his face grew stern.

"Take off your shoes," said the recorder to Morton.

The prisoner sat down and slowly removed his brogans, while the crowd in the courtroom gaped in expectation of something interesting. Then the recorder said to Constable Hassmeyer:

"Officer, give this man a good spanking."

The constable, a husky citizen, grabbed the prisoner, sat down in the chair, drew Morton across his knee, and seizing one of the shoes raised it aloft and brought it down with a heavy thud on the most available portion of the wife-beater's anatomy.

"Wow!" yelled Morton. "Stop that, will ye?"

The crowd in the courtroom snickered, and a faint glimmer of a smile appeared on the disfigured countenance of Mrs. Morton.

"Give it to him good," ordered the recorder, and the shoe rose and fell with a precision and force that made the wife-beater squirm and howl.

The constable grew red in the face with his exertions, but he never missed a stroke, and held the prisoner by the back of the neck with a viselike clutch.

Morton was moaning and weeping when Recorder said "That's enough" and thencalled the wife to the rail.

"Will you now forgive this man and take him home with you?" asked the recorder of the woman.

"No I won't," was her emphatic reply. "What would be the use? He came home last night, ugly from drink, and beat me unmercifully, as you can see. He best me worse than the constable beat him. Now if I were to take him back home he wruld be nice as pie for a time; then, as soon as he got drunk again, he would pound me to pieces. No, judge the best place for him is in jail. And the longer he has to stay there the better for him."

Morton fell on his knees and begged forgiveness.

"You didn't pay any attention to my pleading last night when I begged you not to hit me again," she replied. "On your way to the workhouse," and she turned her back on him.

The recorder remanded him to jail.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

BOGUS BARON.

Frederick Goebel, who posed as a Hungarian baron, and in that guise eloped with Marion Dougherty, the seventeen-year-old daughter of D. Webster Dougherty, the Philadelphia lawyer and clubman, in Loudon, last June, went to Philadelphia yesterday in pursuit of his bride, who had been brought home by her parents, and got a hot reception when he tried to enter the Dougherty home at Bryn Mawr last night. Several private detectives, three watchdogs, and a corps of servants prevented the spurious baron from seeing the girl whose affections he had run away with last summer.

Mrs. Dougherty, who is prominent in Philadelphia society, took her daughter for a trip on the continent early last summer. While in Paris they met Goebel, who told them that he was of a noble family in Hungary and that he had great estates on the Danube. Both Mrs. Dougherty and the impressionable daughter were charmed with Goebel, and the mother invited him to take an automobile ride through Normandy.

The baron had not long been a member of the automobile party when Mrs. Dougherty grew displeased at the attentions he was pressing upon her daughter. Her fears were increased when she saw that the romantic young girl was completely charmed by the graces of the baron. Mrs. Dougherty put back to Paris, and told the baron that he must not see Marion any more.

After that prohibition had been put in effect, Goebel and Marion Dougherty promptly eloped. They hurried to London, where they were married. Mrs. Dougherty cabled for her husband in haste, and when Dr. Dougherty arrived they both went to Vienna to look up the baron's pedigree. They found that his estates were a myth and his title bogus. All the Vienna police knew of Baron Frederick Goebel was that he was a Swiss waiter, who had done odd jobs in Vienna beer gardens.

With this information in their hands the father and mother found their daughter and disillusioned her. Marion consented to go back to Philadelphia with her parents. They arrived home Tuesday.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 28, 1907.

THE rejection of Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks as a delegate to the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Church at the meeting in Columbus, Ind., yesterday was doubtless actuated by conscientious motives on the part of those who cast their ballots against him. A great many people, however, cannot see in what manner the Vice President has committed an unpardonable sin in serving light stimulants at a dinner given on Memorial Day in honor of the President of the United States. There are other charges against Mr. Fairbanks. It is averred that he did not contribute liberally to the Methodist Church of Indiana, and that he failed to affiliate with his home church until a few months ago. Mr. Fairbanks is probably one of the most careful of men, and from all that can be seen by the outside world he is temperate and methodical in all his ways. He [illegible] is not a man likely to go to extremes in eating or drinking, and the wines and cocktails which seem to have caused such an offense to those who were not guests at the dinner may, after all, have played but a minor part at the feast. The abuse of liquor is no doubt a universal evil, and those who let it severely alone are in the safest positions in life, but that all professors of Christianity should vie with Mahomet in exterminating the vine because some persons make beasts of themselves is not a plank in the platform of the majority. There has ever been a certain percentage of members of all churches who were teetotallers, and always will be. They have ever regarded wine as an enemy of all they hold sacred, and have an undispnted right to their convictions. Others, however, to whom over-indulgence in eating and drinking is an abomination, have failed to see the sin unto death in the temperate use of all the blessings of heaven. It would be bringing coals to Newcastle to reproduce the many arguments which have from time to time been made concerning the use and non-use of stimulants. Church members, some radical on the subject and others of more conservative mould, have endeavored to strengthen their respective standpoints from the same book from which both build their faith, but the disputants are as much at variance as ever. At different times during the present era well-meaning people have forbade the use of tea, coffee, chocolate, pork, &c., while some have placed under the ban all personal adornments—watch chains, jewelry, etc.—while others have insisted that it is sinful to wear clothes. Sancho Panza was on the verge of starvation while supposed to be Governor of Barataria, but his court physician allowed him to eat nothing but a few compressed waters, the doctor averring that every edible on the table was productive of evil in one way or the other. Sancho had his censor, and our Vice President seems to have his.

AGAIN a woman is finding fault with American wives and complaining of the failure of American marriages. This time it is Anna A. Rogers, in the Atlantic Monthly, who says that "the excessive education and excessive physical coddling of young women" and their devotion to physical culture and sports has evolved a hybrid feminine who is a cross between a magnified, rather unmannerly boy and a spoiled, exacting creature who sincerely loves herself alone. Thus, explains the sociologist, "a slipshod, unchivalrous companionship" has grown up between the sexes, which after marriage is found to be "a cause for tears of temper." One contributory cause, she says, is the existence of 2921 courts empowered to grant divorces.

IN Alabama a federal judge who served in the Confederate army enjoined the State officials from enforcing a State law untill the federal courts had a chance to pass upon it. In Minnesota a State judge has issued a mandamus to compel the railroads to obey a law which a federal judge has enjoined the State officials from enforcing. The Alabama judge is with the national government and the Minnesota judge is on the side of the local authorities. The conflict between the federal and the State courts is on, sure enough, but, suggests the Philadelphia Record, geographically the situation is very confusing.

AT A series of conferences held at Carnegie Hall in New York yesterday by Mr. W. R. Hearst and his friends, who were said to represent thirty-nine States, it was decided to form a national party out of the Independence League, and, with its own ticket and platform, to wage a campaign for the presidency next year. With this in view, the formation of a national committee was undertaken, of which Mr. Hearst is to be the chairman. Mr. Hearst, though posing as a democrat, seems to be determined to prevent the election of a democratic president. The sooner he is eliminated from politics the better it will be for the country.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 28.

The President will probably not be given an opportunity to retrieve his lost tennis reputation by taking on the Bishop of London again, for the bishop has made engagements for every minute of the rest of his stay in Washington. British sympathizers in Washington say this is rather lucky for the President, as he would probably be trounced worse than he was yesterday. The bishop got stronger every minute, as he became more and more accustomed to the court and the President's style of playing. The bishop played with Secretary of the Interior Garfield, and the president with Assistant Attorney General Colley.

An appropriation to extend the federal pure food inspection to cover milk and dairy products will be asked of Congress by Secretary Wilson during the forthcoming session. This move was determined upon after an investigation of dairies and dairy products about Washington. The new service will resemble that already established for meat inspection, and the inspecting force now employed by the Department of Agriculture will be used for that purpose. Secretary Wilson is of the opinion that it is the only method of insuring a pure milk supply throughout the country.

Postmaster General Meyer announced today after a conference with the President, that Attorney General Bonaparte had rendered an opinion sustaining his recent modification of Postmaster General Cortelyou's order regarding the weighing of railway mail. Under the Cortelyou order the mail was weighed six days a week and those roads that carried it seven days were the loosers thereby. The Meyer order directs the weighing of mail on seven days when it is carried on Sundays.

Senator Curtis called at the White House today with an invitation signed by all the governors and all the senators and representatives from all the States west of the Mississippi urging the President to attend the meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Congress which is to be held at Muskogee. The President said he regretted his inability to attend.

The Secretary of the Navy announced today the award to the Electric Torpedo Boat Company, of New York, the contract for four submarine boats of the "Octopus" or Holland type, and three additional submarines of the same type, though of greater displacement. It is further announced that sufficient money has been reserved from the total appropriation of $3,000,000 to buy two more of other types if deemed advisable. The decision is regarded as a temporary defeat for the Lake torpedo boat folks.

Frank B. Kellogg, who has had the Standard Oil octopus on the griddle in New York, preparatory to demanding a decree for its dissolution, is conferring here today with the President and Attorney General Bonaparte. Although Kellogg says his visit is mainly for the purpose of securing from the Department of Commerce and Labor certain documents to be used in the further examination of the Standard next week, there is excellent authority for the statement that the primary object of the hurried visit is to go over the Harriman case before the President leaves on his western trip. Secretary Bonaparte has had the papers in the Harriman case under consideration since July 13. Kellogg has from the first advocated prosecution. He went over the case first with the Attorney General. Later today the two of them called at the White House. Kellogg expressed himself as highly gratified over the results thus far accomplished in the Standard Oil prosecution. He hints at even more startling disclosures.

A Japanese wrestling match will take place in the White House on the President's return from his western trip. The President himself will be only a spectator, the entertainment being furnished by Taimoen Hitachiyama, the champion wrestler of the empire, and one of his training companions. The champion called at the White House today and presented to the President the handsome jeweled sword which had been given him at Kito, Japan. President Roosevelt told the wrestler that he could not think of accepting such a valuable present from a private individual, but inasmuch as it was an expression from an entire city, he would take it with great appreciation, especially as it came through "such a distinguished athlete of the best swordsman nation." Ambassador Aoki, who accompanied the champion to the White House then arranged for the wrestling match.

The biggest naval construction progress ever recommended at one time is contained in the report of the general board signed by Admiral Dewey, which has just been placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Navy. A majority of the board favors the contraction of four battleships bigger than any now under construction or authorized anywhere in the world, and also the construction of five scout cruisers of the Birmingham type.

Before making an award for whisky the judges at the Jamestown Exposition have asked Dr. Wiley to test as to its purity a sample of what they consider "the finest."

James Perry Wood, was today appointed chairman of the Spanish Claims Commission by President Roosevelt, to succeed former Senator W. E. Chandler, resigned.

The federal grand jury at San Francisco yesterday, returned indictments on 124 counts against the Southern Pacific Company, one of the Harriman lines, and the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, charging violation of the interstate commerce laws. These indictments, if followed by convictions, are sufficient to render the corporation liabel to fines aggregating $2,480,000, the minimum fines prescribed by law on each count being $1,000 and the maximum fine $20,000.

Word reached Wheeling, W. Va., from Huntington last night of the killing of Maggie Robinson, aged twenty, by Wiley Ford, who, it is alleged, intended the shot for "Mat" Scales. Both were suitors of the girl. Scales and Miss Robinson entered a restaurant, and Ford followed them, carrying a shotgun. He accosted them and a quarrel followed. Ford, it is alleged, fired, and Miss Robinson fell, shot through the head. Ford's defense is that the gun was accidentally discharged in a scuffle with Scales.

The steamer Minnesoto, with Secretary Taft and his party on board, arrived at Yokohama yesterday. The programme of the official reception to the American Secretary of War has grown in proportions. The entire programme for his entertainment will be submitted to Mr. Taft. It includes functions lasting for three days, commencing with an audience and luncheon with the Emperor.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

Enthusism in the work of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew reached its highest point in the sessions yesterday, when every meeting was attended by unprecedented audiences, and Continental Hall, Washington, was filled from dawn until dark with earnest churchmen.

STUDENTS GOING TO CONVENTION.

An interesting feature of the General Episcopal Convention, which holds its opening session in Richmond next Wednesday will be a gathering of the alumni of the Virginia Theological Seminary near Alexandria. The occasion will be in the form of a reunion, and will be featured by a banquet, which will be held in Masonic Temple, October 11, at 7:30 o'clock. It was formerly stated that the banquet would be held in the Jefferson hotel, but the change will be made in view of the fact that lunches will be daily served to the convention delegates in the temple, and a change would cause confusion. The students of the seminary will be granted a leave of absence commencing Friday, October 4, and extending through the following week, in order that they may take advantage of the sessions of the general convention.—[Richmond News Leader.

Michael Crow, one of the oldest residents of Berryville, died yesterday aged seventy-nine. He was a native of Uniontown, Pa., but had resided in Clarke county over thirty years.

Virginia News.

Dr. B. L. Rex, a well-known physician, died Thursday at his home in Hillsboro, Loudoun county, from paralysis of the heart, aged fifty-five.

Miss Edmonia G. Crawford, of Washington, died yesterday at the residence of the Misses Lomax, of Warrenton after an illness of several weeks.

Dr. James Hamilton Browning, acting professor of practice of surgery and abdominal surgery in the University of Virginia, and one of the most noted in that section, died yesterday at his home, in Charlottesvile. Dr. Browning had been ill for months, and recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

A fire that for a time threatened the Warpath at the Jamestown Exposition, was discovered early yesterday morning in the streets of Cairo and for half an hour there was wild excitement in that section of the grounds. Quick work on the part of the fire department confined the flames to one section of the street and prevented any great damage to the property.

The inquest into the death of Mrs. Mary Lawless Rorschach, shot in her home in Portsmouth, supposedly by a burglar, was resumed late yesterday afternoon and continued until night. The hearing again was behind closed doors. No new evidence, it was stated by one of the attorneys in the case, was brought out, but it was said that the testimony threw new light on evidence already offered, and this, it was further said, tended to strengthen the chain of circumstantial evidence against Thomas Archer, the negro arrested a few hours after the commission of the crime.

Miss Jennie Rayner Bevan, niece of Senator and Mrs. Rayner, was married Wednesday to Robert W. Wells, of Prince George's county, Md. The ceremony was solemnized at the country home of Senator Rayner, at Sudbrook Park, Md., by Rev. Dr. Hobart Smith, assisted by Rev. John T. Stone. The bride was given away by her brother, Lieut. W. F. Bevan, and the bridegroom was attended by Geo. P. Hoover, of Washington, as best man. Mrs. Wm. B. Rayner was matron of honor, and the Misses Grace and Marie Bevan were bridesmaids. The bride is the daughter of the late Thomas H. Bevan, who was Commonwealth's attorney of King George county, Va.

THE BISHOP OF LONDON.

The Rt. Hon. and Rt. Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, D. D., Bishop of London, arrived in Washington yesterday evening to attend the international convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He was met at the railway station by a delegation of prominent clergymen, headed by Mr. James L. Houghteling, of Chicago, founder of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Bishop Satterlee, of Washington; Rev. H. H. Montgomery, of London; Rev. Dr. Devries, pastor of Trinity Church, Washington, and others. They were driven to the White House, where the Bishop of London was received by the President. Bishop Ingram is declared by British delegates to the convention to be the best preacher in London, and Washingtonians will have an opportunity of hearing him during the open-air services which are to be held at the site of the cathedral at Mount St. Alban Sunday afternoon, when the cornerstone will be laid.

The first entertainment given by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt since their return to Washington was a dinner given at the White House yesterday evening in honor of their house guest, the Lord Bishop of London. The table decorations in the state dining room, where the dinner was given, were orchids and pink carnations. Besides the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the invited dinner guests included the Lord Bishop of London, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Metcalf, the Surgeon-General of the Navy and Mrs. Rixey, Rt. Rev. Dr. Brent, Bishop of the Philippine Islands, Mrs. Satterlee, Mrs. Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. Glover, Mr. Silas McBee and Capt. Fitzhugh Lee.

FAIRBANKS DEFEATED.

Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President of the United States, was defeated yesterday at Columbus, Ind., for delegate to the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Church, after one of the most bitter contests that has ever been waged in a religious assembly.

The temperance laymen, many of them long associated with Mr. Fairbanks in the church, refused to condone what they regard as an offense against temperance, and the distinguished candidate went down because of having served cocktails and three kinds of wine at the dinner given to President Roosevelt on Memorial Day at the Fairbanks home.

There were eighteen candidates for the seven places, and it was given out that the Vice President would head the delegation by being selected by acclamation.

The motion, however, to select Mr. Fairbanks by acclamation was defeated by a decided majority, and it was decided to elect delegates by ballot.

It required 97 votes to elect, and on the first ballot two candidates were chosen. Mr. Fairbanks received but 79 votes.

On the second ballot two other candidates were chosen, and the Fairbanks vote fell to 65. On the third ballot he received but 45 votes, on the fourth 47 votes, and on the fifth 35 votes.

The constant falling off in the Vice-President's vote discouraged his friends, and when the result of the fifth ballot was announced, his name was withdrawn, a friend making the statement that the Vice President had not been a candidate in any sense of the word, but that his friends thought it would be an honor to him and the church to send him as a delegate to the quadrennial conference.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Distress in Spain.

Madrid, Sept. 28.—Starvation confronts 200,000 peasants in the flood districts today, and it seems impossible to provide relief. The damage and property loss is estimated at $19,000,000 and more than 12,000 people are homeless.

Malaga alone will be able to reap any harvest and the food situation is the most serious of many years. People who were driven from miserable homes by waters have absolutely nothing except the rags upon their back. They are gathering in great herds today about government offices in the towns wailing for assistance. Women who have carried their babes in their arms for three days and nights and similar pathetic sights confront the officials.

The rain is continuing in some districts. The Red Cross Society has begun to give relief and will do everything within its means.

Investigating Standard Oil.

New York, Sept. 28.—Were the records of the liquidating trustees of the Standard Oil trust burned in 1900 after the new organization took charge? This question was asked today by persons closely connected with the government's suit to dissolve the hundred million dollar corporation, and there is a growing suspicion that the correct answer will be in the affirmative.

At the examination today John G. Milburn, when asked if the books still exist, said: "I know nothing to the contrary." But he would say nothing more.

Kellogg desires the missing books more than any other evidence. He believes that from them he can show that the monopoly has been continued without break through all the outward changes since the signing of the original trust agreement in 1882.

The San Francisco Grafters.

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—The members of the board of supervisors of San Francisco were not bribed by the United Railways to vote that company an overhead francisce. They all voted for it from high and lofty motives. Then the United Railways "remembered" each of them with presents of several thousand dollars. These are the sort of stories that are being told in the trial of Tirey L. Ford, chief counsel for the United Railways on the charge of bribery. Ex-Supervisor McGushin, one of the witnesses, stated that he voted for the franchise because he thought it was the chief avenue to salvation for the San Francisco people, and he had no twinge of conscience when he was "remembered" with a gift of $4,000. Others gave similar reasons for their action.

Gans to Leave the Ring.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 28.—Joe Gans, colored, today declared that his fight last night with George Memsic, whom he defeated, will be his last; that he will never again enter the ring, unless Jim May makes a definite proposition to sign him for another fight with "Battling" Nelson. "I have made the money I came west for," said Gans, "and am satisfied to rest. I have fought hard and received some hard punches, not from the fists of my opponents, for there is no man who can make me take a beating, but I have been treated shamefully by Nelson and his manager, and have been scored by a few newspaper editors and all this hurts. I am leaving the ring, I believe, the greatest fighter in the world."

Storms and Floods in France.

Paris, Sept. 28.—Reports from southern France state that the flood and storm conditions are growing worse hourly. A cloudburst, accompanied by severe electrical storms, ravaged portions of Marseilles today. Lightning struck many houses, starting fires, which, however, did little damage, so heavy was the rain. Streets were transformed into lagoons and all car service was stopped. Most of the grape crops are lost. They already had been halt starved by the wine grower's troubles.

Numerous roads have collapsed and many deaths are reported. The suffering is said to be particularly severe about Narbonne.

Carlos to Abdicate.

Lisbon, Portugal, Sept. 28.—Boycotted by practically all the leading families in his realm, King Carlos has weakened under the pressure brought upon him by the allied opposition party leaders, and will probably abdicate within a few days in favor of the Crown Prince. Fear is felt, however, of a popular outbreak, and extraodinary military precautions have been taken to maintain order. Four lines of troops surround the docks and guard the streets. Numerous detectives are shadowing suspects.

A Brewer Lord Mayor.

London, Sept. 28.—A brewer was elected Lord Mayor of London today. Sir John Charles Bell, who was given the highest office of the municipality, is the head of a big brewing company. He has been prominent in the affairs of the city for several years and was formerly Sheriff of London. The election was held with the time-honored ceremonies in Guild Hall at noon. The new mayor will assume the duties of his office November 9.

Death of Grand Duke Friederich.

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Grand Duke Friederich I of Baden died today at his castle on the Island of Mainau, in the Constance lake. He was born September 9, 1826, he being the second son of Grand Duke Leopold and of Grand Duchess Sophie, princess of Sweden. Friederich was one of the oldest reigning grand dukes in the German Empire.

The Vice President's Defeat.

Columbus, Ind., Sept. 28.—Crushed over his defeat as a candidate for lay delegateship of the Methodist church at the quadrennial conference at Baltimore next year, Vice President Fairbanks sent word to the local Southern Indiana conference today that he will not come here to make an address for the conference. His message was terse. He merely said "I wont come." He had been invited early. Three charges stood in his way, as followers: The cocktails alleged to have been served to President Roosevelt at the Memorial Day luncheon at Indianapolis; that he has not contributed liberally to the Methodist church of Indiana, and that he did not affiliate with the church in his home city until a few months ago, having never taken his card from the church at Delaware, O.

Auto Race.

Morris Park Race Track, Sept. 28.—Four miles ahead of the best American record, and with their car circling the vast oval at a 50-mile-an-hour gait, Cedrino and Parker, in the big 35-horsepower flat racing car, are well in the lead in the last twenty-four-hour race of the season.

This pair are gradually drawing away from the other seventeen cars.

L. W. Smelser, driving a Lozier car, and John Clark, a spectator, were probably fatally injured today when Smelser, drove his car through a fence as he was taking one of the curves in the track at a terrific speed.

Confessed Murder.

Findlay, O., Sept. 28.—Through a letter received from the coroner of Rio Blanco county, Colorado, the murder of Peter Rouen, committed here 18 years ago, has been partly cleared up. Rouen's body was found in a stone quarry. His skull had been crushed. The letter says Sam Riston, a laborer, fatally hurt there on, his death bed confessed that he took Rouen's body from a barn where it was hidden by the slayer and threw it into the quarry, receiving a large sum from the murderer for this work. The real murderer's name is not made known.

Dropped Revolvers Into the Sea.

New York, Sept. 28.—Over five thousand revolvers, new and old, big and small, were dropped into the ocean today by officials of the police department. Under a new law, weapons found upon prisoners must be destroyed and Commissioner Bingham, himself, boarded the tug on which the revolvers were taken off Sandy Hook. He wished to make sure that they were dropped into the sea.

Mrs. Chadwick's Condition.

Columbus, O., Sept. 28.—Cassie Chadwick, the "witch of frenzied finance," had rallied somewhat today after the attack of heart failure last night. Dr. A. C. Helmick, penitentiary physician, said today that Mrs. Chadwick's illness was not feigned and that, while she is much improved today, her condition was such that she might die any minute from a recurrence of last night's attack.

Boys Charged With Murder.

Waterburg, Conn., Sept. 28.—John Casenzo was found dead in a room of a Jackson street lodging house early today with several bullet holes in his body. In the room with him were Santoro Grafila and Mungrone Caderzo, 18-year-old boys. Both were locked up charged with murder. They say Casenzo showed them a revolver and then shot himself

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 28.—London was weak again this morning and brokers sold 10,000 shares of various stocks in the first few minutes. This London lead was followed by selling all around the room The effect of the pressure was intensified by vigorous bear raids and prices of everything traded in continued down grade. At the end of the first hour the market ranged from 1 to over 2 points below yesterday's figures. Railroad and other bonds irregular.

COLORED BISHOP.

At the Episcopal General Conference at Richmond, on October 2, for the first time in the history of Virginia, a negro will sit in the chancel of St. Paul's Church, the worshipping place of Jefferson Davis and General Robert E Lee.

This man is the Right Rev. Dr. S. D. Ferguson, C. L., missionary bishop of Cape Pelmas, whose residence is Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa. He is the only negro entitled to sit as a member of the convention. Bishop Ferguson was born in Charleston, S. C., on January 1842, and was consecrated as a missionary bishop of the church in that city on June 24, 1885.

JUDGE SLEPT.

While Judge J. W. G. Blackstone was sleeping on his bench yesterday afternoon, the Commonwealth's attorney, attorneys for the defense and the sheriff held a conference and decided that the Circuit Court of Elizabeth City county, in which Julian Pavlinic is on trial for his life, charged with wife murder, should be adjourned until today. After this decision had been reached, the clerk awakened the judge, and F. S. Collier, senior counsel for the defense, moved that court be adjourned until today in order that City Sergeant. Milstead, of Newport News, might be summoned as a witness for the defense. The judge agreed, and court was declared adjourned.

The jurors were very much wrought up over the situation, and some of them declared their intention of dispersing and quitting attendance upon the court. They were informed by Sheriff Curtis, however, that despite the judge's nap, he proposed to do his duty and see that the law was carried out as far as the jury was concerned. The jurymen were locked up for the night as usual. It is said that Judge Blackstone had been drowsy all day, and while Attorney Collier was in the middle of an argument yesterday afternoon, the judge fell into a sound slumber. Mr. Collier requested the clerk to arouse the court. This was done, and the argument proceeded.

A few moments afterward Commonwealth's Attorney Lewis objected to the introduction of certain records which were being read by Mr. Collier, and it developed that the court was hearing neither record nor objections. Then the lawyers and sheriff consulted, and agreed [illegible]ournment. Later develop[illegible]d with interest. IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our daughter, ISABELLA BUTTS, who departed this life September 29, 1906—one year ago tomorrow.

The trial is hard, the pain severe,
To part with one we loved so well;
But in our hearts she shall remain
Until we meet in Heaven again.

The depths of my sorrow tongue cannot tell
At the loss of my daughter I loved so well;
As she lies in peaceful sleep
Her sacred memory will be kept.

BY HER LOVING MOTHER AND FATHER,
MR. AND MRS. E. T. STEELE.

In memory of my beloved wife, ISABELLA M. BUTTS, who departed this life September 29, 1906—one year ago tomorrow.

Farewell, dear, but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn;
We shalt meet to part—no never,
On the resurrection morn.
Tho' thy darling's form lies sleeping
In the cold and silent tomb,
Thou shall have a glorious waking
When the blessed Lord doth come.

A devoted wife and a loving mother.

BY HER DEVOTED HUSBAND AND LITTLE SON, L. E. BUTTS, SR., AND L. E. BUTTS, JR.

[Dedicated to the memory of my dear friend, CLARA FLORENCE WADE.]

From the sorrows and troubles of life, dear,
Our Saviour has called you away,
And tho' we will miss you much, dear,
We would not have it our way.

And now that your work is done, dear,
Your life's checkered journey run,
May you hear from your Father's lips, dear,
The welcome words, "Well done!"

BY HER FRIEND, EFFIE.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

LEGISLATORS IN A ROW.

It has leaked out that Speaker Lethbridge and Abram Klenert, of the New Jersey House of Assembly, had a lively tilt at the State House last Wednesday night, following the adjournment of the Legislature for the week, and the end of the row is not yet in sight.

Klenert accused the speaker of unfairness in declaring lost a motion to recall a Passaic water bill from the Senate.

"You're a dummy, the Speaker replied, "you do nothing but sit in your seat and draw pictures."

"Well, thank Heaven, I'm not owned by anyone, as you are," retorted Klenert, hotly. "No one has to act as a guardian for me."

A fistic encounter between the men was averted by the interference of James Nugent, personal representative of ex-Senator James Smith and Klenert was finally induced to leave the building. As he departed he flung back the challenge to Speaker Lethbridge: "I'll show you next Wednesday whether that motion was lost or not."

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson & Timberman.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more live than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhage of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MISTAKEN FOR PICKPOCKET.

Prince Louis of Battenberg was the victim of an error on the part of the police on his arrival at Perugia, Italy, from Florence yesterday, but he accepted the incident with a good grace and made no complaint. When he stepped off the Florence train the prince was approached and searched by detectives, who had received instructions from Florence to look out for three men charged with the theft of a pocketbook on the train. On learning of the mistake made by his subordinates the commissary of police hastened to call at the Prince's hotel and apologize. Prince Louis derived much amusement from the mistake.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

What is medicine for? To cure you, if sick, you say.

But one medicine will not cure every kind of sickness, because different medicines act on different parts of the body. One medicine goes to the liver, another to the spine, Wine of Cardui to the womanly organs. So that is why has proven so efficacious in most cases of womanly disease. Try it.

Mrs. Wm. Turner, of Bartonville, Ill., writes: "I suffered for years with female diseases, and doctored without relief. My back and head would hurt me, and I suffered agony with bearing-down pains. At last I took Wine of Cardui and now I am in good health." Sold everywhere, in $1.00 bottles.
